COLLEGE FIELD-DAY.

SPECIAL INTEREST THIS YEAR IN THE ATHLETIC SPORTS.

THE ENTRY LIST YERY LARGE.

Some of Those Who Will Take Part in the Various Events-Examination in the Gymnasium-Notes from

It is a fact that Richmond College is going to have a field day, and that a good one, too. May 14th has been decided upon as the day for the throng to assemble on the campus and see what the wiry college lads are able to do in the way of running jumping, throwing, and tennis playing.

Great preparations are being made for the occasion, and everything points to the most creditable field day in the history of the athletic association. The Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Professors Mitchell and Hunter and Messrs. Kaufman, Loving, O'Bannon, Lee, and Owens, have completed the list of events, and are busy securing prize for the various contests. Only four medals will be given this year, three to the following events respectively-mile run, tennis, and 100-yard dasa. The fourth medal will be given to the best all-'round athlete.

GROUNDS IN GOOD CONDITION. The grounds have received many improvements of late in the way of grading and laying out of courses. A new quar-ter-rile track is one of the most interest-ing features of these improvements, and ing features of these improvements, and then, too, the tennis courts have been rescraped, and furnished with buck-stops. The whole of the campus on the Bronstreet side will be devoted to the field day sports, and the different events will be distributed over this area. Another feature will be a match game of basketball between two select teams, and a special ground will be prepared for it. It is now praity well understood who

It is now pretty well understood who are going to participate in the field day sports, as the entry book was closed on last Thursday. The date of entry has been put early so that the participant-may be required to train for their re-spective events. This will insure good The entry list is a long and er couraging one, containing nearly 50 mer who have decided to enter the contests The all-'round medai this year will be carnestly sought after by several of the students. Some of the promising con-testants for it are White, Ren, De Vault J. D. Frazer, and Mabrey. Among the first year men who have shown much billty and Interest are Cammack, J. ability and interest are Cammack, J. H. Makrey, Goodwin, Frazer, Trailer, Willingham, Seay, Williams, and Lumpkia. The inferrun will be closed between De Vault, Seay, Frazer, Trailer, and Mabrey, while Mabrey, Quisenberry, McNeil, Carroll, and Gibson will have a close run for the tennis medal. There is an abundance of good material and an enthusiastic college spirit, and these two things will aid much to a su cessful field day.

NOTEEN FROM THE COLLEGE.

NOTES FROM THE COLLEGE. The second examination of the members of the gymnasium is now in progress So far, judging from developments ma e there has been evidence of good work done by the members.
